Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy explains what happens to any personal data that you provide to us, or that we collect from you whilst you visit any of our activities or get in touch with us. We do update this Policy from time to time so please do review this Policy regularly.

Information we collect

In running and maintaining our websites and basketball related activities, we may collect and process the following data about you:

- Information about your use of our site including details of your visits such as pages viewed and the resources that you access. Such information includes traffic data, location data and other communication data.
- Information provided voluntarily by you. For example, when you register for information or make a purchase.
- Information that you provide when you communicate with us by any means.

Use of cookies

We do not use any cookies on the website.

Use of your information

We do make a temporary note of your IP address when you log in or contact us through the contact page. This is not stored anywhere, and is collected in case we need to track any abuse or misuse of the website. This information is destroyed after any legitimate use is made.

Storing your personal data

You voluntarily provide us with emergency contact details and you can advise us of any medical issues you or your child may have. It is collected in case we need to contact you or your next of kin in an emergency, or to take preventative action when faced with any medical issues. This information is NEVER disclosed to anyone except your coach or your child's coach. It is NEVER transmitted or passed on to anyone else.

Disclosing your information

We will not disclose your personal information to any other party other than in accordance with this Privacy Policy. If you no longer wish to have contact with Dragons you can 'unsubscribe' us.
